

HE WANTS DAMAGES.

Suit Filed Against the Illinois Central R. R. Co.

Twenty-Five Appearances for June Term—Josh Mason Adjudged Insane—Court House News.

Mr. Herbert Cox, a young farmer residing in the Gracely vicinity has entered suit in the Circuit Court against the Illinois Central Railroad Company for damages.

Mr. Cox alleges in his petition that the agents and employees of the defendant corporation were guilty of gross and willful carelessness and negligence in refusing to stop their train at Greens crossing on April 13th to take him on as a passenger. He says that on the said date he had very important business in Hopkinsville and had no other means of transportation than the Company's C train. He alleges that this is a flag station and that the company is under contract to stop there. Wherever a passenger desires to get on or off. He alleges that he hailed the train in due time for the agents to have stoppage but instead of doing so they "jeered him and seemed amused" over his discomfiture. He prays for damages in the sum of five hundred dollars.

Docket For June Term.

The docket for the June term of court will be much lighter than that of the term recently closed. Up to the present time there are only twenty-five cases on the appearance docket, and only one divorce suit. However, as more than a month remains for instituting new actions the appearance docket may reach one hundred suits. A great many cases were continued from the last term and the full time of the court will be taken up. If it is necessary to clear the docket Judge Cook will probably extend the time.

Adjudged Insane.

Josh Mason, a well-connected citizen who lived on the Butler road, near the city, was adjudged a lunatic yesterday. He was brought before Judge Cansler for examination. His demented condition was so apparent to the court that he was ordered taken to the asylum.

Real Estate Deal.

In the county clerk's office yesterday a deal was lodged for record from John S. Bryan to Mrs. Cornelia Wallace conveying a lot on Eighteen (formerly Hopper street.) The consideration was $400. Mrs. Wallace will build a dwelling on her newly acquired property.

Amusements.

Cora Van Tassell and her excellent company of players produced Mark Twain's famous comedy, The Gilded Age, at the Opera House last night and strengthened the favorable impression made on their first appearance. Miss Van Tassell is one of the most versatile artists upon the American stage. One night we are held spellbound by her wonderful acting in an emotional role like Camille and the next we are amused at her jolly rollicking antics in a roguish soubrette. The performances given by this company are superior to many that have appeared here at high prices. The play is a patriotic comedy drama and is especially adapted to the intense feeling of the public during the present crisis with Spain.

The engagement will close to-night with a complete production of "A Fair Southerner," which has been a great success in all of the large cities earlier in the season. Miss Van Tassell plays the part of a brave daughter of the confederacy, who dons the uniform of a drummer boy to get through the lines to gain information. It is to be hoped that the amusement loving people of our city will turn out in large numbers to-night and give this excellent company a hearty send-off. Miss Van Tassell will always be a welcome visitor to Hopkinsville.

B. J. Wall, of Gracely, who went to Chickamauga Monday evening, returned yesterday and reports the whole earth alive with soldiers and fighting equipments at Chickamauga park. He spent a good deal of time making a tour of the park, and relates some interesting incidents of his trip. —Leit Chronicle.

DR. HAUSER'S SUCCESSOR.

Dr. Cora E. Brown, of Dawson Has Been Appointed.

The prolonged speculation as to who would be the successor of Dr. Katherine Hauser late second assistant physician at the Western Asylum, is ended at last. Gov. Bradley has made the appointment. It is a woman, and she is Dr. Cora E. Brown. Her home is at Dawson, where she has practiced her profession during the past eight years.

Her father is a physician of high standing and his talented daughter has been associated with him in the practice of medicine. She is a graduate of the Cincinnati School of Medicine and is in every way fitted for the place which Mrs. Hauser filled.

Dr. Brown is a lady of strong mental traits and broad culture. Her professional duties have cast her none of the soft and refining traits of her sex and her womanliness has not been sacrificed upon the altar of science. She will qualify Tuesday at a special Board of the Asylum Commissioners.

Wheat Looking Fine.

The farmers in all sections are in fine spirits over the bright prospects for wheat. The crop is looking first class and if the $1.25 price holds up, there will be some old fashioned prosperity in Christian county.

Mrs. Stowe Convalescent

Mrs. G. Howard Stowe, of Julien, who has been very ill of fever during the past two weeks, is now convalescent much to the gratification of her many friends in this city and county.

GUARDS TAKE PART.

Soldiers Will Be Seen In "A Fair Southerner."

Presentation Of the Great War

Drama To-Night Will Be Intensely Realistic.

The Latham Light Guards, "Co. D," has arranged with the management of the Cora Van Tassell Company whereby a fair proportion of the proceeds from this evening's performance will go to the fund being raised for the purchase of a handsome silk banner.

The engagement of this unusually strong dramatic organization will conclude with a war drama "A Fair Southerner," with Miss Van Tassell in the title role. This is one of the versatile little lady's favorite parts and her interpretation of the character has made her a favorite in the leading Southern cities. The play deals with the dramatic episodes of the great civil strife, and it is a beautiful love story woven through a series of intensely thrilling incidents.

The Latham Light Guards will participate in the performance. The soldiers will be seen in camp and will give a highly realistic color to the battle scene, the climax of the drama. The Guards will also give an exhibition drill.

The participation of the local soldier boys in the performance will tend greatly to swell the audience. Aside from this fact the Company merits a more liberal patronage than has been bestowed upon it during its engagement thus far.

CENTURY RUNNERS.

Trio of Fast Wheelmen Arrived In The City From Madisonville.

Messrs. Chas. Lindsay, Ed Harned and Henry Daves, three fast young wheelmen from Madisonville arrived in the city yesterday. Their object is to make a century run over the smooth, macadamized roads around this city. They will leave the city this morning at six o'clock and ride to Providence, Tenn., and back through this city to Fairview making 50 miles, and return from Fairview back through this city to Providence and return, thus completing the century run.

Mr. Harned has several century runs to his credit and is one of the best known wheelmen in this section.

Daves is only a 13 year-old boy, but a remarkable wheelman and his friends are anxious for him to complete the run in fourteen hours in order to be eligible to the next meet and capture the laurels as the youngest century runner in the State.

Extends Congratulations and Best

Wishes to the "Daily Kentuckian."

En Ville Friday.

GENTLEMEN.—My manager has just handed me a copy of the initial appearance of "THE DAILY KENTUCKIAN" which chronicles my initial appearance in the local amusement world. Please allow me to congratulate you upon the neat appearance of your new venture and extend my best wishes in the journalistic firmament. The press has always been a staunch factor in the advancement of the higher class of the drama and the elevation of the stage. I consider that the stage and the press, when properly used, stand foremost in the advancement of intelligent civilization.

"All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women
Merely players."—SHAKESPEARE.
Yours sincerely,
CORA VAN TASSELL.
